Little Squirrel

By: Ruth Bornstein

Once there was a little squirrel, and everybody loved him. His mother loved him. His father loved him. His grandmother and grandfather loved him. His friends loved him. Everyone loved him.

Even when he was only one month old, everybody loved Little Squirrel.

Pink Butterfly flying in the forest, Green Parrot in his tree, and Red Monkey in her tree, all loved Little Squirrel. Even Big Whale thought Little Squirrel was nice.

Giraffe, walking in the forest, was there when Little Squirrel needed him. Little Gorilla and Big Elephant came to see him.

Lion roared his loudest roar for him. Even old Hippo took him wherever he wanted to go, because she loved Little Squirrel.

Just about everybody in the great green forest loved Little Squirrel! Then one day something happened ...

Little Squirrel began to grow and Grow and Grow and GROW.
